

Joan Hall

I started painting in the 1960's and exhibited soon after at the Buxton Pavilion, Derbyshire.

I stopped painting in the 1970's when we moved to the West Country. I took it up again in the 1990's when I joined the U3A. I prefer to paint portraits but have tried landscapes in recent years.

I have been a member of Art for Leisure and Pleasure for some years now and have exhibited with the group on a number of occasions.

Stargate – Richard Dean Anderson